Image Services Information

Images (photographic or digital material) of objects owned by The Rockwell Museum (“the Museum”) are available to scholars, educators, publishing companies and commercial entities, with prior written approval of the Museum. All rental materials remain the property of the Museum and must be returned within three months of receipt. Nonprofit use is any application of images for personal or academic use or by an organization such as an educational institution (school, university, museum, library), church, charity, or nonprofit, tax-exempt [501(c)(3)] organization. Commercial use applies to businesses such as commercial publishing houses utilizing our images for motives of profit. Permission is granted for non-exclusive, one time usage, in one language. Additional languages and subsequent editions will be considered upon application.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Images must not be used for any purpose other than that listed on the permission form, nor may they be assigned to any other person or firm. Any and all reprints, further editions, or additional use of any kind must be preceded by a new application and is not covered by the original fee or permission form.
2. Requests for images must be received in writing and at least 3 weeks in advance. Additional fees may be incurred on rush requests. All requests are limited to the Museum's collection, buildings and grounds.
3. Permission can be granted only in writing and on the Museum's permission form.
4. Payment in advance is required. Fees are non-refundable under any circumstances.
5. All rental material must be returned to the Museum (c/o Registrar) at the end of the agreed rental period. Renewal may be possible in some circumstances; however, the Registrar must be notified one week before the end of the original rental period of any renewal needs. Failure to do so will result in monthly late fees.
6. The Museum prohibits the duplication of any photographic materials/digital images sold or rented.
7. Reproduction is permitted only from materials supplied by the Museum. Production from printed or other non-photographic materials, or from images not supplied by the Museum, is strictly prohibited.
8. Reproductions cannot be cropped, superimposed, bled off the page, airbrushed, reproduced on colored stock, or otherwise altered in appearance. If a detail is to be used, it must be approved in advance and so stated herein.
9. Responsibility for researching outside copyrights falls to applicant.
10. The Museum makes no warranties or representations and assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any claims against applicant or the Museum by the artists, their agents, estates, or by any parties in connection with the reproduction of works of art in the collections of the Museum. The applicant agrees to indemnify the Museum and hold it harmless against any and all such claims, including copyright infringement claims, royalty or fee demands and/or actions, including the costs thereof arising as a result of the applicant's reproduction of the works of art in the Museum. According to the Copyright Act of 1976, copyright owners or reproduction rights may be retained by the artist for works of art created after January 1, 1978. Any and all royalty payments or other requirements specified by the copyright owner of such a work must be paid or honored by the publisher or agent requesting reproduction permission.
11. The Museum reserves the right to decline to provide images to applicants who have not complied with its policies or whose products are unacceptable to the Museum for any reason.
12. One (1) copy of the publication described above in which the reproduction appears shall be donated to the Museum.
13. The Rockwell Museum does not have publication quality photography facilities located on-site. If an image is not in the Museum's records, the requestor will be notified. Requests for publication quality images are contracted to vendors outside the Museum and new photography fees will apply.

The following terms and conditions apply to electronic publication and web use:

14. The client is licensed to store the images in his digital database for the duration of this agreement only. The copyright in any digitized version or copy of these images made in the course of the permitted use of the image shall be retained by the Museum.
15. Maximum resolution on product: 600 x 800 pixels, 72 dpi Maximum file size on product: 100 kb
16. The Rockwell Museum retains the right to view and approve at the "draft" stage all scans and the accuracy of identifying text.
